

Sacred Site Shellmound Peace Walk

Sponsored by Indian People Organizing for Change (IPOC) and
Sacred Sites Protection & Rights for Indigenous Tribes (SSP&RIT)
October 9-21 2006

Beginning at Solano Community College in Fairfield traveling through the Bay Area and ending at the Kule Loko Round House in Pt Reyes

Indian People Organizing for Change along with Vallejo Intertribal/SSP&RIT invites all to join in a journey of walk and prayer to remember our ancestors that lived on this land for thousands of years. The walk will be led by traditional Native American leaders and Nipponzan Myohoji Buddhist. We will walk and pray with our ancestors in areas where shellmounds and sacred sites have been desecrated by development.

Needed for the walk:

- Bring a good attitude
- Please bring your own water bottle, utensils, bowl, plate and cup. Sleeping bag and small tent if you have one (we will be camping at least one or two nights). Clothes for all types of weather, including rain gear. Money for ferry to San Francisco and any other incidentals that you may need.

Donations needed:

Places for people to stay the night at our destinations. Groups to provide evening meals. We are in need of donations to purchase supplies and gas
